

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:08; sunset, 6:39.

Mrs. Pearl Murphy, 26, 245 N. Hoyne av., found in barn at 2024 Madison, suffering with pitchfork wound. Died later at County hospital. Michael Flynn, 1251 W. Lake st., arrested.

No street cars operate over Van Buren st. bridge from 8 a. m. today till noon Saturday, but south roadway will be open for teams. Being repaired.

Probation of will of E. W. Peck, lawyer, 137 S. LaSalle, shows estate of $230,000. Widow, brother Wm. and sister Mary chief beneficiaries.

Dan Lewis, 4421 Vincennes av., who escaped from Dunning, arrested when he told man he had bought Louis Meyer's woolen mills for $100,000. Psychopathic hospital.

No stolen property found in Louis Kohn's office, Heyworth bldg., and charges against him and Morris Blumenthal, 1451 N. Rockwell, of receiving stolen property continued.

Wm. Hiler, 6349 Drexel av., stepped on body while bathing at Oak st. Was that of G. E. Wiswald, 230 Schiller, drowned Monday.

Edw. Craig, 1801 S. Wabash, sued for divorce.

The charge of disorderly conduct brought against Mrs. Jessie Boss, 7135 Stony Island av., by daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Boss, 1725 E. 71st, dismissed.

Mrs. Sara Rosenberg sued habeas corpus petition against Home for Jewish Friendless and Working Girls for release of her three children.

Ald. J. H. Bauler, 515 W. North av., wedded Miss Tillie Jane, who lives next door.

B. L. Winchell, who directs all freight and passenger traffic on the Union Pacific system, has become a grandfather. Stork stopped at home of B. L. Winchell, Jr.

Ray Schellheimer, 533 E. 60th, discharged on charge of attempting to mistreat Mrs. Iva Barnes, 356 E. 58th.

Frank Kanka, 19, 2425 W. Walton, sued through guardian to annul marriage to Mary Padlesak, 23. Says her brother threatened to kill him if he did not marry her. Minority invalidated marriage is contention.

Miss Anna Deveraux, 4202 Berkeley av., and sweetheart, Chas. Hastings, 4215 Ellis av., killed by I. C. train as they left beach at 39th.

Miss Ida Gunderson, Greenwood. Wis., probably fatally hurt and four others injured when auto hit street car at Sheridan rd. and Irving Park blvd.

H. H. Shaffer, Ft. Worth, Tex., clipped second off world's record for throwing steer at Round Up. old Cubs park. Threw steer in 8 seconds.

Martin Koelper, 7th grade pupil, school district 63, earned $180 from a 46-sq.-rod school patch of yellow onions.

Cadillac cafe hearings set for Sept. 14. Three charges of selling liquor without license dismissed because they were duplicated in other charges.

Municipal bonds signed by some one appointed by mayor may be legal, but do not sell, says Att'y Leon Hornstein, city law dep't, in answer to talk of getting clerk to do job of signing for Mayor Thompson.

Wheel raffles of chickens, ham and bacon ran full blast at S. State street fair last night. Were not permitted on previous nights of fair.

Involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed against Jacob Lasker, alleged to have transferred $300,000 property with intention to defraud.

Carpets will supplant waxed ballroom floors and nature dances will replace tango, says Veronine Vestoff, Russian exponent of classic dancing.

C. A. Kingsbury, official of U. S. Mica Mfg. Co., sued for divorce. Charge desertion.

Girl attempted to jump in river from St. Paul road bridge. Lost her nerve. Blindfolded self and jumped